

Q 15 Q. "What is the minimum age at which volunteers working with children in Church activity, should be vetted?"

A. Only young people over the age of 16 should be vetted, and only then with parental consent. The parental consent forms for vetting can be obtained from the Garda vetting office in Thurles. It would be unwise to have anyone below the age of 16 leading groups.